Cingular Bargaining Report #13

February 9, 2005

Yesterday, your CWA bargaining committee let the company know that their response to our proposals falls very short of resolving our member's issues. As a result of the company's failure to come to the table with anything we could deem as progress last night, the committee is returning home.

The agreement to extend the 2001 contract continues and the Union stands ready to bargain.

Stay tuned to the website www.CWA-Union.org/Cingular and your locals will advise of escalated mobilization activities.
