Cingular Bargaining Report #11

February 7, 2005
6:00 p.m.

Your CWA bargaining committee met with the company for 3 hours this afternoon. While we have made some progress on job security issues, the company has not made satisfactory progress on our other big issues.

We have advised the company that while we agree to extend another 24 hours; they need to start making serious movement on our other big issues because they have yet to counter our proposal on retail sales compensation, have not satisfied the needs of our technicians for fatigue time, overtime and call outs and they have not addressed our concerns on job titles that are not on wage schedules that fairly compensate for the level of work being done.

Your bargaining team is working right now to counter the company's latest proposals and will meet with the company team again later tonight.

We will continue to assess the progress being made and report out as the situation develops.

Your Bargaining Committee,
Ed, Lamar, Jeremiah, Holly, Rachel, Pat, Teri
