Cingular Bargaining Report #7

Saturday, February 5, 2005
3:43 p.m.

After several disappointing sessions this week, the company has started to move with their proposals.

Early this morning, the companies committee presented their first counter wage proposal, which still fails to meet our needs. We are prepared to meet as long as we need to.

The time is ticking; we still have many issues remaining: Job Security, Wages, Titles, and Retail Commissions.

Stay strong and united!

In Solidarity,

Your Bargaining Committee
